

Your Weekly News & Updates

Our Pre K will be going on a Fall fieldtrip this week. They are visiting Hillcrest Farms in Ellijay. Ms Lisa and Ms Heather go on Wednesday October 21 and Ms Lynn and Ms Kelly follow on Thursday October 22. They will leave the school by 8:05. Don't be late!

Our children are continuing the October theme with Spiders and Scarecrows! What a combination! We are going to fall into autumn with some fun, autumn activities for preschool kids that they are sure to be nuts about. A spider book, scarecrow file folder games, colorful autumn collages and fly away crow game will make children excited -- and it will improve their language and math skills too!

THANKS FOR YOUR SUPPORT!

October is Breast Cancer Awareness Month

On Friday, October 23 FPCDC will be having a "PINK OUT". We encourage all the staff, children and parents to wear something pink. By wearing pink we will bring awareness to Breast Cancer. Our children probably will not understand about the disease, but with everyone in pink, we will show our support and strength for Breast Cancer survivors, patients and their family and friends.

Trunk or Treat

First Presbyterian Church will be hosting a Trunk or Treat on Wednesday October 28 at 5:45 Our CDC families are invited to participate. Free hot dogs, hamburgers, chili and chips will be available for our CDC friends. Dress up in your favorite Halloween costume for the big Costume Contest.

Service Spotlight

This week we would like to spotlight Ms. Christine, the teacher in younger two year old classroom.

Ms. Christine has served the CDC since 1994. She has loved and nurtured great numbers of children doing this time.

Ms. Christine has a loving, generous nature and her consistency of expectations help the children develop and adjust readily. Having Ms. Christine as a teacher provides a great foundation.

CDC is very happy to have this great teacher and witness her daily commitment.
